

10th ANNUAL MADRID CONFERENCE ON AUSTRIAN ECONOMICS

Madrid, October 21st, 22nd and 23rd, 2026

Submission deadline: July 31st, 2026

The Faculty of Political Economy of Universidad Rey Juan Carlos in Madrid, in cooperation with the Master Programme in Economics of the Austrian School, is holding its tenth annual conference on Austrian Economics. The aim of the conference is to bring together scholars from around the world who are conducting research within this intellectual tradition.

The Scientific Committee invites submissions of papers related to Austrian Economics, covering subject areas such as value and utility, market behaviour, money and banking, financial economics, business cycles, economic history, law, and philosophy.

To celebrate the tenth anniversary of the conference, a Gala Dinner will be hosted at the Casino de Madrid, during which the winners of the Youth Liberty Prize 2026 and the recipients of the Research Grants 2026, sponsored by the Fundación Jesús Huerta de Soto Ballester (www.fjhsb.es), will be announced and honoured.
